

72%

have a greater understanding of their sexual orientation and gender identity

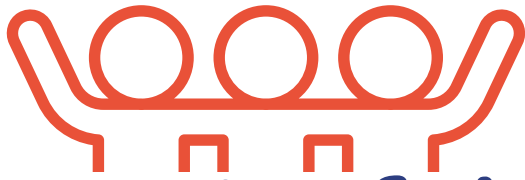

76%

have been able to make positive decisions about their health and wellbeing

9 out of 10

said LGBTYS has helped them make new friends and feel part of a community

7 out of 10

said LGBTYS has helped them know what to do if they are in an unsafe situation like being bullied or harassed

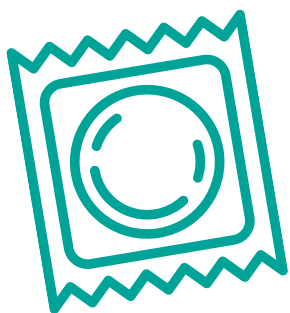

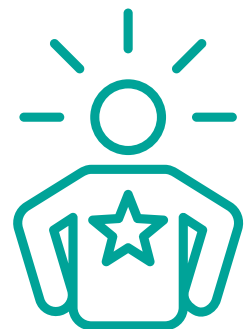

68%

said LGBTYS has given them a more positive vision of their future

86%

agreed that being involved with LGBTYS has increased their confidence

6 out of 10

said they have a better understanding on how to make safe choices about sex and sexual health

8 out of 10

said they are more able to express their voice and make a difference

56%

learned new skills that can help them in education, training, volunteering or new employment

THE YOUTH WORK SURVEY 2023