

ARTICLE 12

EVERY CHILD HAS THE RIGHT TO AN OPINION AND FOR IT TO BE LISTENED TO AND TAKEN SERIOUSLY

You should never be prevented from having a voice because of your sexuality, sex, gender reassignment, race, disability, pregnancy and maternity, poverty and faith, etc.

All queer people have a voice, just like every one else.

This article ensures young, queer people can express themselves and have a say when being forced into potentially harmful situations.

ARTICLE 12

This right is in action at all times and is relevant regardless of the situation.

Expressing opinions is an essential part of life

Every young LGBTQ+ person has the right to have their thoughts and beliefs taken seriously

Everybody deserves to express themselves
