EVERY CHILD HAS THE RIGHT TO BE PROTECTED AGAINST DISCRIMINATION.

This doesn't matter if it's based on their sexuality, sex, gender reassignment, race, disability, pregnancy and maternity, poverty and faith, etc.

Every child deserves to live a life without the fear of being the target of a discriminatory attack.

All too often queer youth are targeted and discriminated against because of who they love and how they live their lives.

ARTICLE 2

Hate can come in many forms like verbal, physical and virtual.

Nobody should tolerate hate.

We all play a part in keeping each other safe.

This includes parents, guardians, peers and all responsible adults in your life
